

Quality Services

Services you can always rely on

Eliminate your concerns on wastewater treatment through our offering solutions. UBA brings to the table the product & service options which would effectively turn your burden into an investment.

Total solution to waste and water concerns, shape up your burden into investment

Engineering, Procurement and Construction Contract (EPC)

Under close corporations between UBA and reliable overseas companies possessing the most recent advanced technologies in the industry, UBA is able to expand service options for clients in engineering architecture, equipments and construction procurement.

Start-up & Commissioning

The triumph of the treatment system cycle would depend on mistakes that can occur at system start-up. With UBA comprehensive experience, clients' systems will be closely monitored and managed during testing and system launching periods. User manuals, expert advice, and correct handling and operating procedures will be among the things UBA offers services.

Integrated Operation & Maintenance

Employees at UBA are qualified as a registrar operator in pollution control under the Department of Industrial Works. Constantly receiving training for developing potentials & knowledge in new technologies, while gaining wide understanding of clients' industries. Once these skills, knowledge and understanding are applied to the real sessions, client will receive the most efficient customized operation plan in system maintenance from UBA team.

Operation Supervision

UBA is registered under the division of the business sector of the industry as operator in pollution treatment system control under the jurisdiction of Department of Industrial Works. Clients can have confident with our assistance to their systems throughout their service time, from monitoring and supervising system process, system or process implementation, and regular report of operation's status updates.

Consulting Service

UBA is a center of professionals in all areas of expertises: biological methods, engineering, planning, financial, etc. Advices on water quality issues widely range in knowledge, both horizontal and vertical; place focuses on decreasing water usage and wastewater release, the best solution for cost reduction and cut down any business risk.

Troubleshooting

If clients are to look for our supports or solutions, UBA will thoroughly study the source of problems and immediately allocate a team consisting of those with experience in troubleshooting such particular problems. With this quick response, our client will be able to continue with their works without worrying about solving problems.